POETRY

"TO SUDDENLY GAIN SIGHT"

BY JAMES OLIVER RYAN

Changed light is there before him
An impression
A propped up blank canvas to begin
To see nature in the best possible way
Light in different seasons in various shades
And so paints Monet,

To see nature in an elaborate way
One suddenly gains sight
One sees the interplay of light in nature, and puts it on display
A propped up painted canvas dries in changed light
It dries in the light from the sight of the eye of Monet.

To paint a picture with a vision that swims
This happens at various hours of the day

"WHAT GETS YOU"

BY JAMES OLIVER RYAN

You---Yes---You---what gets you
It is always possible to penetrate more deeply
The secrets of nature,

What gets you---new discoveries
Successfully applied---they bring on the emission of light,

When you hear certain music---,it gets you
You find your thoughts somewhere else
Music is the background of your new venue

You can change your nature
This is what gets you---and---an electrons might.

Rock ‘N’ Roll Hall Of Famers Blue Coupe To Play Mood Fest Stage

-R O'Donnell
If you believe Ogdensburg is a city of past triumphs and events, please reconsider. What was once a booming industrial metropolis many decades ago is finally experiencing a unique and noteworthy cultural renaissance. Thanks in part to a very determined group of entrepreneurs, artists and musicians, all dedicated to presenting creative venues to strengthen community and commerce in the North Country, Ogdensburg is becoming a bonafide place of destination once again.

A good example of their latest glistening draw is the city's annual MOOD fest (Music on the Oswegatchie Delta). A sensational three day musical jubilee complete with artisans, venders and riverside tent camping, founded by gifted local instrumentalist and impresario Pat Duffy, this scene will be presenting some pretty stellar acts this year. Along with local talent teen pop artist Alexa Hooper and National recording artist Nick LaDuc to sensational North Country bands such as Waydown Wailers, Annie in the Water, and Switch, MOOD Fest will present on July 18th rock legends Blue Coupe.

The angry orphans of Blue Öyster Cult and the Alice Cooper group, Blue Coupe is an iconic tribe of rock stars. Showcasing Rock 'n Roll Hall of Famer Dennis Dunaway alongside Blue Öyster Cult's multi-instrumentalist Joe Bouchard and his brother, extraordinary drummer/percussionist Albert Bouchard, Blue Coupe is a musical tour de force. With classics such as "School's Out," "Under My Wheels" and "Astronomy" (covered by Metallica) Joe, Albert and Dennis have sold over 15 million albums and have been awarded over 30 gold and platinum records worldwide.

Throughout the 70s, Blue Öyster Cult opened shows for theatrical shock rockers the Alice Cooper group on a record-breaking tour that included venues from outdoor festivals to sold-out arenas eventually gracing the cover of Forbes magazine as the highest grossing tour of the year. As Alice Cooper became world famous with hits such as "No More Mr. Nice Guy" and "Elected," Blue Öyster Cult continued with their own sold-out tours rocking hits such as "(Don't Fear) The Reaper" and "Burnin' For You." All these amazing musical accomplishments have served these superstars of Blue Coupe very well indeed.

"Blue Öyster Cult was playing a stadium in Cleveland," recalls BOC drummer Albert Bouchard, "And the gig was dubbed the "World Series of Rock." Right? Huge. It was enormous, staged in this mammoth arena and we were on the bill with Rod Stewart and Aerosmith, etc., great, wonderful. And Steven Tyler and I are hanging out during the day. He's a multi-instrumentalist and just loves the drums. So we're talking drums, and he's playing and I'm playing. Actually, we got to know each other from when Aerosmith opened for us on our first tour. It was just one of those great periods. So anyway, that night, I'm onstage in this giant stadium, its packed and I'm playing and I look up in the balcony, and way up there in the clouds was some spec of a person in the third row dancing away, you know, just grooving to the beat. They're just bopping away, me and this tiny ant of a person, we're just connected by the music and I never wanted it to stop. I wanted to play forever. I wanted it to never end so that person and I could go on incessantly. Because I knew if I stopped, he'd stop and that would be the end of it. That would be the end of that precious moment that we shared. It was one of the greatest moments of my life. Honestly. One of the greatest."

Blue Coupe has certainly learned from their past triumphs as evident with their highly acclaimed release "Tornado on the Tracks," a multiple Grammy-nominated album featuring Robby Krieger (legendary guitarist for The Doors) on the hit single "Angel's Well." Blue Coupe's second album, Million Miles More, features special guest stars Alice Cooper, Tish and Snooky from Manic Panic, Ross the Boss from Manowar and the Dictators, Buck Dharma from Blue Öyster Cult and Goldy McJohn from Steppenwolf. Their latest single "Hallow's Grave," which features steamy vocals by rock veteran

Alice Cooper, has recently been submitted for Grammy consideration.

"We needed a name," explains Albert, concerning the group's tag, "Dennis was doing a gig and needed a drummer so I volunteered and then my brother Joe climbed onstage and we rocked the house. Anyway, it seemed a good combo so we were booked as a trio by popular demand and that, too, was a great success. Then we were opening for Alice Cooper and it was time for a name so it was kind of a pun really, "Blue," for our Blue Öyster Cult glory days and "Coupe" for Dennis and his Alice Cooper days. So it was Blue Coupe thereafter and it was a perfect way to pay tribute to the past, present, and future with a bit of a wink."

Their presence at the third annual MOOD Fest is certainly cause for celebration. The stage show, which assembles a wall of sound guaranteed to make Rock 'n Roll waves across the Oswegatchie Delta, has to be experienced to be believed. This promises to be a big concert sound experience mixed with the great outdoors of the North Country. Already being hailed as a "must see and hear to be believed" experience, Blue Coupe headlining MOOD Fest is another example of the vastly changing times here in the resurgent city of Ogdensburg, New York.

MOOD Fest plays the 17, 18, and 19 of July. For more information please visit: <https://www.facebook.com/OswegatchieDeltaMusicFestival>

Songs At Mirror Lake Music Series Announces 2015 10th Anniversary “Best Of” Lineup And Major Sponsors

—Katie Million

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. – The Songs at Mirror Lake Music Series has announced that The Pines Inn will, once again, be the Whole Note (Title) Sponsor for the 2015 season. This is the seventh year that The Pines Inn has committed to supporting the music series. In addition, Adirondack “By Owner” returns as the Half Note (Presenting) Sponsor for the fifth consecutive year. The Pines Inn Songs at Mirror Lake Music Series presented by Adirondack “By Owner” is held at 7:00PM on seven Tuesdays throughout the summer at Mid’s Park on Main Street, Lake Placid. This year marks the tenth anniversary of the Songs at Mirror Lake Music Series. As a celebration of some of the great music that has been offered through this free event, the organizers have announced a “Best of” lineup and are bringing back seven performers/bands who have been favorites over the past ten years.

These weekly performances, running from June 30 through August 11, feature local, regional and national acts in the scenic and historic setting of Mid’s Park on Main Street, Lake Placid, New York. The series features local and regional emerging artists in a variety of musical genres and provides valuable exposure to these up and coming acts. The music series is also an opportunity to introduce residents and visitors to a diverse range of musical genres in a scenic and relaxing setting.

In its tenth year, The Pines Inn Songs at Mirror Lake Music Series presented by Adirondack “By Owner” is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization that is comprised of a volunteer committee with all expenses covered by sponsorship and donations. It is truly a community inspired initiative that has produced a 10th Anniversary “Best of” lineup that includes the following upcoming performances:

Tuesday, June 30: Americana Night with Amy Helm (2013)

Tuesday, July 7: World Rock Night with Rusted Root (2013)

Tuesday, July 14: Celtic Night with Jubilee

Riots (formerly Enter The Haggis) (2008)

Tuesday, July 21: New Orleans Night with The Dirty Dozen Brass Band (2007)

Tuesday, July 28: American Rock Night with Lukas Nelson & P.O.T.R. (2013)

Tuesday, August 4: Rockin’ Roots Night with Back Porch Society

(formerly Roadside Mystic)(2011)

Tuesday, August 11: Blues Night with Quinn Sullivan (2014)

The Pines Inn is your ticket to old world charm in the heart of the Adirondacks. Guests enjoy comfortable and quaint accommodations in this historic hotel and are within walking distance to all the splendor and opportunities the Lake Placid region has to offer. The Pines Inn provides personalized customer service and ensures every guest a unique experience including a relaxing veranda and on site seasonal restaurant – Duncan’s German Grille, a fabulous place to start or finish the evening. Raise your stein in year-round celebration of Oktoberfest to the beat of Oompah Music and revel in a home-made feast of authentic German bratwurst and schnitzel served by a fraulein in a dirndl. Duncan’s serves dinners on Friday and Saturday nights and Friday night Duncan’s Grille also features a fabulous Fish Fry – A real Local favorite!

Visit the Adirondack “By Owner” website

GAME CONNOISSEUR

Through STEM Education Our Future Is Bright

---DR. ANTHONY BETRUS
THE GAME CONNOISSEUR

PROFESSOR OF EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY AND ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP,
SUNY POTSDAM

I was reminded recently that when I was growing up my mother would routinely push me and my brothers out the back door and state simply “go play.” We knew to come back for dinner, but it was a solid 2-3 hours of outdoor time for us every afternoon, and more on weekends. And there was no choice, it just was, and not just in the summer, but in the winter too. We always managed to find something to do, and we were not afraid to experiment or dabble and try new things. This was the essence of play, and it is something kids and adults alike need in their life.

Games, for their part, have rules, and inasmuch as you can change, bend, or break the rules you are playing. It is through play that we build new knowledge, strengthen relationships, and ultimately grow. Some examples of semi-structured play spaces include Legos, Minecraft, Robotics, and K’NEX. These activities, and others like them, offer a sandbox, virtual or otherwise, that allows for free-form making. And it is through these creative problem solving spaces (often called maker spaces) that we are seeing the rise of a new movement: STEM Education.

The concept of STEM Education (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) is old, but the emphasis is new. And it comes at the same time we see an increasing emphasis on standardized tests to assess fundamental knowledge and skills. These two (fundamentals and STEM) are not necessarily at odds with each other. Fundamental skills in reading, writing, math, and science form the foundation for critical thinking and problem solving activities. In some cases there have been additions to the STEM acronym, most recently the addition of an “A” for Arts, forming the term “STEAM Education.” This further emphasizes creativity in the problem solving process, and while not as well-known, it is catching on.

Eventually standardized testing will be replaced with continuous assessment (you heard it here first). By that I mean that we will know on an ongoing basis, and with relative precision, what skills a student has mastered, not just with an end-of-year assessment, but through continuous assessment. There are technology tools out there that already do this, and as they mature and become more accessible, we will see a gradual fading of one-off testing. This will, in turn, allow for more and better STEM (STEAM) teaching, and ultimately unleash new generations of critical thinkers and problem solvers. And, in the end, it really comes down the the same skills that our parents knew we needed, and that was to get out there and play. I guess Mom really did know best,

UNCLE JOHN'S RADAR

"Uncle John" Moyer

KELLER WILLIAMS "VAPE"

Unbelievable!! It's so hard for me to believe that VAPE is Keller Williams 20th official release. Vape finds the prolific singer/songwriter/guitarist offering 10 original tracks, some road tested and some brand new.

Vape finds Keller at his best delivering his signature, off the wall story telling. Backed by a variety of fellow musicians including Samson Grisman/Bass, John Kadlecik/Guitar, Ronnie McCoury/Mandolin, Rob McCoury/Banjo, Alan Bartram/Bass, Jason Carter/Fiddle and others. Keller's playing has never been more precise and versatile. No matter what the configuration, Keller always reveals himself as an artist of great stylistic breadth and infinite imagination on a continuous quest for the new.

As Keller "This record was made as a Virginia Psychedelic Excursion." So now the CD title is revealed....VAPE. Keller states "It's like taking all of my favorite songs that I have been playing live lately and smashing them all together!"

WWW.KELLERWILLIAMS.NET

BILL KURZENBERGER "RESONATE"

Bill Kurzenberger hails from Columbus Ohio and is one of Ohio's hottest singer/songwriters in the Mid-West! This new project features nine Songs all written & composed by Bill. Bill reached out to some of the musicians (fourteen in all) that he has or is currently performing with. RESONATE takes you on a musical journey that features all the sides of this talented musician/singer/songwriter. I am a huge fan of Dr. John & Bruce Hornsby and Bill fills that soulful sound as he casts his spell that leaves you wanting more!

RESONATE is a well produced CD and with the layering of great musicianship that you can tell comes loyal support of Members of the Bug Hounds, KrisB's Midnight Railroad (two of the bands that Bill currently performs in), Ian Carroll, Travis Gates, Scott Marruskin, Lou Schocken and Eric Ranmom all friends of this tale talented performer. They set the stage to let Bill shine with his soulful keys and vocals. For all of you Upstage NY fans that remember the days of The Homel-Alaniz Band. Bill has hooked up with David Homel and they have assembled a NEW seasoned All-Star band with some of the finest players of the Mid West. They will begin touring in August as they unveil this new exciting project! Keep you eye out for WHAT GOES AROUND!

WWW.BILLSMUSIC.NET

The WILL McBRIDE GROUP "ALL IN"

The Will McBride Group is well known from Raleigh, NC up & down the East Coast! ALL IN is their fourth release and contains 5 new original songs and a twist on Billy Joel's "Just The Way You Are. This project is well produced & Engineered John Plymale (Squirrel Nut Zippers, Tift Merritt, Connells). Will McBride not only wrote the songs, he performed lead & backing vocals, played all of the guitar parts and he was the Associate Producer. Any fan of the good old Blues and Soulful Funk sounds will be right at home with ALL IN!

WWW.REVERBNATION.COM/WILLMCBRIDEGROUP

MORGAN HERITAGE "STRICTLY ROOTS"

Morgan Roots is a collaboration of members from Brooklyn, Springfield, MA and Jamaica. The Royal Family of Reggae's release is released on their own label CTBC (Cool To Be Conscious). Strictly Roots grabs you from the fist note and the Jai Mon begins! Morgan Heritage gives you 12 great tracks that will have you up and dancing! Strictly Roots incorporates R&B and a hint of Dancehall, but it goes a step further with this synergy and almost effortless fuses of Roots, Dubstep, Pop & Dancehall.

NY State Blues Festival 2015

Robert Randolph & the Family Band will be the headliner at this year's New York State Blues Festival, July 11 and 12, in Syracuse's Clinton Square, the festival's board of directors announced today.

Other bands scheduled to play the annual Blues Festival include the Devon Allman Band, the reunion of local blues pioneers The Kingsnakes and the blues artist John Primer.

Robert Randolph and the Family Band is a funk and soul band led by Robert Randolph, a pedal steel guitarist. The band will be the headlining band on Saturday night.

Devon Allman, the son of Gregg Allman of the Allman Brothers, is a recent member of the Royal Southern Brotherhood. The Kingsnakes set the blues scene on fire in Syracuse during the '80s behind the harp and vocals of Pete McMahon and the guitar of Terry Mulhauser. The band backed John Lee Hooker during a national tour in the 1980s.

Also on the bill are several great local and regional blues bands, including Carolyn Kelly Blues Band & the Soul of Syracuse, featuring Mark Hoffman, Bernie Clark & Todd Fitzsimmons. Phil Petroff & Natural Fact and Castle Creek are two local bands that will be performing.

This year's NYS Blues Festival opens at 4 p.m. Friday, July 10, and continues from noon until late on Saturday, July 11. The festival is free and located in the heart of Syracuse, NY, in Clinton Square.

Here is the complete lineup with times of performance for this year's festival:

F.X. Caprara Harley-Davidson®
General Merchandise Manager

The year was 1981 and a group of 13 members, including Willie G. Davidson, bought Harley-Davidson® back from AMF. The previous decade had seen Japanese motorcycle manufacturers flood the market with bikes they were selling below market value. Even though the outlook was bleak, the visionaries within Harley® understood that with the proper leadership, there was hope.

During the summer of 1982, a group of executives began a cross-country motorcycle ride as a way of reconnecting with dealers and customers. The idea of a club that promotes the biker lifestyle – which is simply to ride motorcycles and to have fun doing it - evolved. So it was that the Harley Owners Group®, commonly referred to as H.O.G.®, was born in 1983. In less than ten years, membership quickly grew to 90,000, by the year 2000 it soared to over 500,000 members, and today there are over one million H.O.G.® members across the globe.

The benefits of being a member of H.O.G. are many – safe motorcycling mentorship, insurance discounts, exclusive products, ‘behind-the-scenes’ at many motorcycle rallies, HOG Magazine, Roadside Assistance, and – of course – organized rides. Many members credit H.O.G. with their seeing more of the world, making life-long friendships, and having lots of fantastic memories to tell their family and loved ones.

This year, on June 27th and 28th, the Harley Owners Group® and Harley-Davidson® continue the tradition with the World Ride. It’s more than “just another motorcycle ride” – it’s a call to action. It’s a chance to break from the same old routine and take back a piece of your freedom. Mark it on your calendar, plot your route on the map, ride with friends, our own local H.O.G.® chapter, or alone, and then share it using #HD-worldride in your social media posts. For more information about this event, and about H.O.G.®, you can go online to: ridefree.harley-davidson.com/worldride, or simply come on over to F.X. Caprara Harley-Davidson®. Let’s show the world what we’re made of.

The 5th Annual Made in New York Festival - Saturday, July 4

The Made in New York festival was created four years ago in 2011 as a principal fund raising event for Meals on Wheels of Greater Watertown. The foundation of the event as it is designed is to promote a “buy local” initiative. Since its inception the festival has raised over $ 20,000 for the Meals on Wheels program.

The event has now upwards to 100 agricultural, farm and home based businesses offering products for sale that are exclusively “Made in New York “. In addition to its home grown products music has always played a significant role in the festival event. Throughout the day 14 bands from across NYS play non- stop continuously from two stages.

This year’s event promises to be the largest of its history with two exciting additions to this year’s event.

The NYS Department of Agriculture and Markets through its Taste NY statewide initiative will be the co-presenting sponsor of this year’s event. “We couldn’t be more pleased to be part of something statewide” said Donna White Executive Director for Meals for Wheels . “ We have all worked hard building this event from scratch and now to join the exciting schedule of Taste NY events is truly an honor. “ Taste NY events promote New York’s top-notch agricultural products including produce, cheese, yogurt, maple products and beer wine, cider and spirits.

This year’s festival feature attraction is the Stephen Siller Tunnel to Towers Foundations “We must never forget 911” mobile exhibit. The mobile exhibit is traveling across the country so that no one ever forgets the events of September 11, 2001. The exhibit is expected to arrive by mid-morning on the day of the event Saturday July 4th from Virginia. A large motorcade will assemble at BOCES on NYS Route 3 to meet the truck and exhibit. The motorcade will then provide an honor escort for the exhibit to Madison Barracks where it will be on display through out the daylong event. The motorcade will be made up of over 200 motorcycles from the NNY American Legions Riders, the Combat Veterans motorcycle club, the Red Knights motorcycle clubs from across the state along with various first responder vehicles. The Jefferson County Sheriff’s department working with the City of Watertown PD and Sackets Harbor PD, NYS State Police will be providing traffic control and will also participate in the motorcade.

As previously mentioned music continues to play a large role in the festival. This year’s venue is being billed as NNY’s largest outdoor variety music event. This year will feature popular local bands from the surrounding area and kicking off the day will be Sackets Harbor’s own Mind the Gap, at 11:00am. Every 45 minutes a new band hits the stage, FFOG, Tommy Gunn, Wagner’s Agenda, Waydown Wailers and Annie in the Water all NNY favorites. Musicians with a wide variety of styles and sounds are coming in from across the state as well. Dirtroad Ruckus, Country and Southern Rock,-Syracuse, Custom Taylor Band, Country –Syracuse Teagan and the Tweeds-Rochester, Golden Novak-Syracuse, SIRSY-Albany, Wild Adriatic from Saratoga and back from last year’s event Under the Gun from Syracuse. Each year the festival features a national touring act with this years featured artist Christian country music’s newest all girl sensation Red Roots from Nashville Tennessee. The event ends with the Village of Sackets Harbor fireworks show and Madison Barracks provides the perfect place for viewing.

This year’s co-presenting sponsors are All American Real Estate NNY, the Town of Hounsfield and NYS Department of Agriculture and Markets Taste NY along with Bud Light, Watertown Savings Bank, Z93, TV 50, WWNY TV 7 and Time Warner Broadcasting. 30 other area businesses have teamed up to make this year’s event possible.

Gates open at 11:00 am Saturday July 4 and advance tickets are available to purchase at participating Kinney Drugs and Valentines Nice & Easy Stores.

FOR SALE...

FOR SALE: 1972 Ampeg V4 tube amp head, 260w peak, 100w+ rms paired with a 1968 Marshall cabinet w/ four 12" original Celestion greenback speakers. Original issue Ampeg V4 monster tube guitar amp. Extremely loud with tone that you can vary between sweet jazz tones and heavy overdrive without needing any stomp boxes. The old time Marshall cabinet brings out the full range of tone from the Ampeg head without any effort. You'll never worry about being heard with this amp, you can easily play as loud as you'll ever need to with this amp, always with great tone. Add a pedalboard and you can get just about any sound you want out of this setup at any volume. This is the kind of amp that all those amp-modeling units and expensive boutique amps are trying to copy. You just can't get this kind of sound with a transistor amp, this is the real deal. The Marshall cabinet is a very rare classic. Four 12 inch Celestion G12M Greenback T1511 speakers with all-original "102 014" Pulsonic cones. The extremely rare gold speaker in the cabinet reportedly signifies that something special was going on at the factory the day the speakers were made - July 11, 1968. The cabinet features all original wiring. This amp was heavily gigged in the 70's and 80's and has only come out for an occasional gig since then. These days I just turn it on once in a while to play at home. The amp and speaker cabinet show a lot of wear from hundreds of shows, but the sound is still stellar. Many beers have been spilled down the front over the years, and that just adds to the character. The inside could use a good cleaning too, it's been accumulating dust for many years. But you can plug right in and gig with this amp tomorrow, it's in good working order. Reverb has faded and probably needs a new tube. All of the tubes are still available, so this amp should remain usable for many more years. Photocopy of the original manual for the amp included. Cover for Ampeg head included. Heavy duty speaker cable included (don't try to use a guitar cable for the speaker, you'll fry the cable!). After-market wheels for Marshall cabinet included. Ampeg V4 - $750.00 Marshall Cabinet - $1,500.00 both together: $2,000.00 917-566-8360 (June 2015-003)

FOR SALE: The Kay KRS301 Metal Body Resonator Guitar is a professional instrument made by a company who has been making guitars since 1890. Kay is sorry to discontinue this model metal body resonator and will not produce a cheaper steel body resonator version as other companies have been doing, as a result, due to the cost to manufacture by using bell brass and gold plating would make the replacement price too expensive to sell enough volume to continue. Add this instrument to your collection now as they are very limited and can only appreciate in value for the owner. Features: Gold Plated Cover, Tuners and Tailpiece. Polished Brass Metal Body. 10" Spun Aluminum Cone. Mahogany Neck. Nickel Silver Frets. Rosewood Fingerboard. 39" L, 14" W1, 10" W2 and 4"D. ### FLASHBACK ANSWERS

1. British musician David Dundas. The song was his biggest hit.
2. Neil Sedaka. It was "Bad Blood" that revived his career in 1975.
3. Jackie Wilson, in 1966.
4. "This Boy," by the Beatles.
5. "Along Comes Mary," by the Association in 1966. The song was written by Tandy Almer and is about marijuana, not a girl named Mary. No one-hit wonder, Almer wrote volumes of music with sophisticated lyrics, a fact that has been discovered since his death two years ago.

As The Crowe Flies — A Conversation With Rich Robinson

---GARRET K. WOODWARD
STAFF WRITER

For all the naysayers, rock-n-roll is alive and kicking — especially in the hands of Rich Robinson.

Guitarist and founding member of The Black Crowes, he has circled the globe for the last 25 years, spreading the mighty word of six-strings gone electric. With the Crowes representing the musical cross-roads of Led Zeppelin, The Allman Brothers and The Band, Robinson is a beacon of light in a modern music industry, where real musicians seem to fall by the wayside in favor of pop idols and instant gratification from a guy onstage hitting buttons on a laptop.

And as the Crowes slide into the upper echelon of rock royalty, Robinson himself has mounted a successful solo career. Though his debut release “Paper” emerged in 2004, it was “Through a Crooked Sun” (2011) that truly showcased his talents, where each melody stood on its own.

“Through a Crooked Sun” was a breakthrough record for Robinson, who looked at the album as a closure of sorts in his life, where all the baggage of the past was put to song, and finally put to rest. With “Through a Crooked Sun” representing a humbled purpose and clarity, Robinson’s latest release, “The Ceaseless Sight” (2014), is a jubilant call for celebration.

Robinson recently discussed his new sense of self, how important having his own band is, and why rock-n-roll is more aggressive and rebellious than ever.

Garret K. Woodward: As you get older, do you look forward to your solo project, where you can do your own recording and touring?

Rich Robinson: Yeah, I think so. The Crowes are the Crowes and it is what it is. We go out there and play these songs, and it’s fun for us, and it brings people joy. But doing this [solo project] brings me joy, being able to bring my music into a new context, and really get in there and change and shift.

GKW: Your last record has a real humbled nature to it, where the new album has this sense of celebration to it.

RR: Yeah. It’s figuring out how to let go of all of your shit and move forward, and hopefully that’s how it comes across — that’s what was meant for this record. It’s about looking forward, moving into the future and letting go.

GKW: Is that sense of clarity being applied to your craft?

RR: I feel more free with what I do. With this record, we went into the studio without so many set things. Let’s just go in and make a record, go in and do this. I have a couple parts for a song and let’s take it in and see what happens, let the energy of the studio take over.

GKW: With the current popularity of EDM (electronic dance music), what do you think about an audience that is focused more on gimmicks than on real musicianship?

RR: It doesn’t worry me — kids are going to like what they like. You can’t force anyone to like something. The bummer is that they’re missing out on something that is far more authentic and sincere. For me, and this is just my opinion, these people get up there and take other people’s music and speed it up or slow it down and add really shitty beats and bad lighting to it.

GKW: And the audience can lose that sense of musicianship, where the beauty of live performance is patience and tension as you watch a band jam out.

RR: There’s no such thing as musician-ship [with EDM]. There was this DJ playing after a show recently and I’m like, “This is what you’ve chosen to do?” By quantizing the beats per minute, it’s just becoming mathematical and there’s no ebb and flow. They’re not picking any deep songs, and even if they did they’d fuck it up by putting some shit over it. You’re not exposing anyone to anything greater than yourself. It’s just really the lowest common denominator. In some ways, I think rock and roll is becoming rebellious again. That getting up there and playing a loud guitar is offensive again. It’s really interesting to see that the most rebellious music, which was rock and roll on a worldwide scale, when that music came out it created a huge shift, then it became bought out and “Who cares?” and was in kid’s shows and in commercials, and it now has slid into this niche market where nobody really gets it but “Who cares?” But, there are some rock and roll bands out there, like Rival Sons and Blackberry Smoke, and it is coming back and it is rebellious again.

Editor’s Note: An acoustic evening with Rich Robinson will be held at 8 p.m. Friday, June 5, in The Gig at Turning Stone Resort Casino in Verona. Ages 21 and over. Tickets are $15. www.turningstone.com.
