

RULES OF THE GAME!!!!

Rule #1: I am formally known as Charlie Sierra during the game. You will address yourself with the military Alpha Code. Emme Price #9 (Echo Peter Nine). All instructions will be laid out in a text message. Upon receiving the opening text, it will be obvious, your response will be...“This is Echo Peter Nine (or your codename), I’m awaiting further instructions.” The task will be delivered, and you will need to complete the task. Once the task is complete, “Charlie Sierra this is (whoever you are...Echo Peter Nine), mission is greenlight.” Not complying with protocol will delay the completion of the game.

Rule #2: You are the one responsible for your task to get complete. Essentially, you are the leader. Some missions are easy, some are well...it’s me, go FIGURE!!! Follow protocols of Rule #1.

Rule #3: Explore every avenue available. Anything can work and everything can be an answer. Think outside the box or inside for that matter. Input always helps, but sometimes our output shows our true colors.

Rule #4: Safety is very important, wear a helmet!!! (Not really). Masks when needed and have fun!!! It’s not about the destination, it’s about the JOURNEY!!!

CHARLIE SIERRA OUT!!!!
