

Straight's Problem of the Week

GRE 534 – October 20, 2008

Complete problem solution must be submitted on Monday, October 27, 2008

A total of twenty-eight handshakes were exchanged at the end of a party. Assuming that everyone shook hands (once) with everyone else at the party, how many people were at the party?