THIS YEAR'S BANQUET

Please plan to enjoy the Thursday evening time together.

Remember the principle of modesty in your planning.

General Information

Please remember to bring the following items to camp this year:

- Pillows, sheets, and blankets or sleeping bags.
- Towels, washcloths, soap, shampoo, toothbrush, toothpaste, etc.
- Clothes – both everyday clothes and some dress clothes for the evening services and the banquet.
- A jacket, in case of wet or cool weather.
- Your Bible.
- A baseball glove.
- Your musical instrument(s).
- Money for the snack bar!
- All of the friends you can round up!

THE BIBLE BOWL

This year's Youth Camp theme is "Soaring to Excellence" – study the book of Philippians (there are four chapters) to be prepared for this year's Bible bowl. During camp, the King James Bible will be used, so if you study from that edition, the wording won't be different when you get to camp.

Rules for Campers

- I will participate in the camp program as planned. I will attend all classes, services, and activities, and will cooperate with my team leaders and other team members.
- I will not leave the campground at any time, unless properly excused by the Camp Director, Rev. Joel Byer.
- I will always show Christian etiquette.
- I will dress modestly at all times. Girls must wear dresses or skirts of sufficient length to cover the knees, whether sitting or standing; they must not be form-fitting or have slits. Both guys and girls must have sleeves at least elbow length. Guys are to wear full-length pants or jeans — no shorts or low-hanging, baggy pants are allowed. Neither guys nor girls are to wear jewelry.
- I will retire to my room and will be in bed at “Lights Out” as instructed.
- I will not bring portable music players to camp, and I will use cell phones wisely.
- I will follow the “hands-off” policy with regard to the opposite sex.
- I agree that ANY failure on my part to comply with these rules is just and fit cause for my dismissal from Youth Camp!
